The screenshot shows a website header with a logo on the left and navigation links: DOWNLOAD, TESTIMONIALS, SUBSCRIBE, and CONTACT. Social media icons for Facebook, Twitter, and Google+ are on the right. The main content area features a large heading: "A simple tool to remove Windows 10 nags and recover up to 6GB of disk space". Below this is a paragraph: "Windows 10 is very often silently pushed onto Windows 7 and Windows 8 computers. You may have noticed this kind of 'Windows 10' icon and message that pops up quite often:". A blue notification window is shown, titled "Get Windows 10", with a clock icon and the text: "Windows 10 is coming. Get it for free!". Below the notification, it says: "For a short time, we're offering a free upgrade to Windows 10. Learn more.". At the bottom left, a cookie notice reads: "This website uses cookies to ensure you get the best experience on our website". At the bottom right, there is a yellow button labeled "Got it!".
