To Whom It May Concern

I am writing to you concerning my appreciation and satisfaction for the secretarial services provided by Ms Sandrine REGIEC to support activities for which I was responsible, during her period as administrative assistant in the Section for Reform, Innovation and Quality, Division of Higher Education (ED/HED/RIQ) from March 2009 to August 2009.

During this period Ms REGIEC assisted me in realizing the following 5 main activities: organization of the UNESCO/EADTU Seminar (March 2009) organization of the 4th Meeting of the Steering Committee for the Global Initiative on Quality Assurance Capacity (March 2009), organization of the exhibition for the World Conference on Higher Education (April - July 2009), organization of the publications for the World Conference on Higher Education (March to August 2009) and the organization of the Online Forum held in the framework of the World Conference on Higher Education and its follow up (May – August 2009).

Ms REGIEC's contribution to the 5 initiatives outlined above was underscored by her diligence, attention to detail and strong organizational skills. Ms REGIEC demonstrated herself to be very competent in ensuring that all administrative tasks needed for these activities were realized efficiently and professionally (e.g. ensuring detailed logistics for meetings, organization of documents, entry of contracts into SAP, follow up for payments for contracts in SAP, administrative follow up with contractors, etc.).

As part of her duties for all of the above tasks, Ms REGIEC liaised effectively with other UNESCO Services (administration, CLD, etc.) and undertook the responsibility of ensuring that all actions were undertaken in a timely and professional manner. Ms REGIEC's understanding of UNESCO's rules and procedures was a true asset to the implementation of these activities.

I would also like to highlight that at period that Ms REGIEC worked with me, there was an exceptionally heavy workload on the entire Section due to the organization of the World Conference on Higher Education. Ms REGIEC applied herself to the diverse and numerous administrative tasks that she was charged with in manner which ensured that the results that we aimed for were achieved efficiently and effectively.

In all of her work with me in ED/HED/RIQ, Ms REGIEC has consistently shown herself to be punctual, innovative and hardworking. I highly appreciated her contributions to the tasks that we undertook together. I was entirely satisfied with her work.
