

Dear reader, what you are going to read is the story of an authentic spiritual adventure, it is about facts experienced as they were, nothing was invented or even exaggerated, for a simple and good reason : The lie is a sin that leads to hell. I am Catholic, I am baptized, I have my communion and my confirmation. I have led my life so far by trusting what I call my lucky star. I was born into a rather wealthy and very believing family, which allowed me to have a wonderful childhood during which only the paternal presence I missed. My father being a manager in a big company was leaving early and returning late at night. Since I understand French, I have often heard that I am dreamer, that I have absences, indeed I dream, I began at 6 years to dream that I helped Goldorak to annihilate the invader during the mathematics course, then over time I asked myself questions, unanswered questions "Are we alone in the universe? Where does life come from? What is life for? ". Questions everyone asks, except that I ask them at a family meal or a birthday meal. Since childhood I have a passionate attraction for Japan, apart from mangas and video games that have rocked my childhood, what I appreciate about this country is its culture, discipline, rigor and kindness of his people, so throughout my adolescence I studied this country, its history, its customs and customs, its population. When I entered adulthood my ambition was to settle there, so during my graduate studies in marketing, in 2004, I had the opportunity to do an internship in a very traditional Tokyo. I was commercial and webmaster of this company, actress on the sector of the wastewater reprocessing. This experience enriched me a lot, partly because I was staying with the boss, so in a Japanese family, on the other hand because I had to conform to the way of life of the Japanese salaryman, to go into a mold and forget my French habits. For the rest I had already spent a month in Japan in the summer of 2001 during which I discovered the positive aspects of the country, its monuments, its countryside, its restless nightlife, in short vacation. My experience as a Japanese employee was going to project me into another reality to which I was not prepared, I will not develop because Amélie NOTHOMB has very well transcribed in his novel "stupor and trembling". Back in France I had difficulties to find a job, it was only after a few months that I signed a contract to be a computer technician-seller in a supermarket, but I had to other ambitions. Four years later, in 2009, I was contacted by the AREVA group, I sent a resume two years ago to this company, finally interested in my practice of Japanese. Indeed, there was a vacancy in Japanese plutonium recycling programs for MOX fuel. I was hired in April 2009. The problem was that I did not speak this language at all when I was hired, so I worked hard to learn all the vocabulary related to nuclear, and I was ready three weeks later, to discuss everything and anything with Japanese engineers.

Months went by and I was always learning more, whether Japanese vocabulary like the term "spectrometric analysis" for example, or the nuclear industry in general and more particularly Japanese. I was comfortable in this new job, my hierarchy was satisfied, my new colleagues all as friendly as each other. I was happy, at my level I had finally succeeded in life and I was not thirty. A beautiful woman and business leader, a newly built house, an interesting job in a world leading group in his sector and incidentally I could afford a sports car. It was in this state of satisfaction that my wife and I thought we had everything we needed. All that was needed to welcome a child. My paternal grandmother, very pious, told us that the day I will be dad she would go ... November 19, 2009 my wife tells me she is pregnant, I phone my grandmother but dare not to tell him, the next day she left us. Naomi arrived two weeks early on July 19, 2010, for the anniversary of our two years of marriage. That night, I could not fall asleep, I cried with joy and I asked why I'm entitled to so much happiness, I measured my happiness, I was the happiest of men. Finally at four in the morning I fell asleep with a smile on my face. Naomi, a biblical name, "sweetness" in Hebrew, "honest beauty" in Japanese, a name reconciling my Judeo-Christian culture and my passion for Japan, a pagan country where there are as many deities as the imagination can create we will come back to it later. Thus I discovered the joys of being a father, clan leader, I was filled, I discovered the meaning of life, that why the man and the woman were made, I thanked the life, the sky, God. The whole family was happy and it gave us wings even at work I received gifts from my colleagues but also customers of AREVA, my Japanese friends. So I enjoyed myself at work and at home, few people can boast of living this in our current world, right? Look at a child growing up is a way to see that time flies, and when I think back to that time, that I look at my daughter today, I realize it's all the more true: the time pass too fast, so it is precious and I will not amuse myself to lose it by writing these lines, nor to you who read them. So we go from July 2010 to January 2011 because nothing that can interest you happened to me during this period. Tuesday, January 4, 2011, my service organizes a meal for this date to celebrate the new year and discuss planning. I sit next to a person I do not know, who is not in my service, a man, about 35 years old. We talk first of all about work, then over the meal, glasses of red, we tell a little about our life, we talk about cars, sports and other trivia. Then he addresses me with this sentence: "Have you seen these thousands of birds and dead fish in December? According to the Bible, it is a sign of the end of the world. "I do not know how to answer, I am a believer but I have never read the Bible, much less what reveals it from the end of the world, by like everyone else I heard about December 21, 2012.

This phrase on his part aroused my curiosity, to the point that the same evening I do research on the Internet. And I actually find the following information: - Last week of December 2010, 83,000 dead drum fish in the Arkansas River. Between 3000 and 5000 dead crows fall from the sky in Arkansas Between December 28 and January 3 100 tons of dead fish along the Brazilian coast. Etc ... I can read in the comments a lot of explanations as crazy as each other (epidemic, poisoning, cold, hunger, HAARP project, fireworks). One comment draws my attention: "I quote the Bible, Hosea 4: 3: This is why in the end the land will be in mourning, and every man that dwells in it will be languorous, with the beasts of the field, and birds of the heavens; even the fish of the sea will perish. That's how I started to get interested in Biblical prophecy. And now I was looking on the internet for unusual facts that were part of the Bible prophecy and that were happening in our time, here are the main ones: Massive deaths of animals since January 1, 2011 and it continues in 2017. Hosea chapter 1 4: 3 "Therefore in the end the land shall mourn, and all that dwell therein shall languish, and with them the beasts of the field and the birds of the air: even the fishes of the sea shall be gone." 2011:

More recently, GOD's covenant with Israel and trumpets of the apocalypse on Rosh Hashanah (the Jewish New Year). This circle in the sky symbolizes the ALLIANCE that GOD does with Israel. And the trumpets are those of the apocalypse.

Israel is the most Spiritual place on Earth because it is the land of GOD. This phenomenon was observed during the Jewish Feasts on October 1, 2016 of Rosh Hashanah and Yom Kippur Jewish New Year and Great Forgiveness! The Hebrew Calendar perfectly respects the cycles Solar and Lunar for more than 5000 years we are at the year 5777 That of the 7 sacred number par excellence which corresponds to the seven colors of the light and we know that GOD is love and light.

If we add up all the numbers  $7 + 7 + 7 + 5$  that gives 26 which is the exact number of the Name of GOD which is unpronounceable as it is sacred. In Hebrew each letter is also a number, the interpretation I have just made is called KABBALAH (Jewish Kabbalah)

After this parenthesis, let's continue my story in its chronology. On Friday, March 4, 2011, before falling asleep, I was seized with a funny thought. I started to cry, and I repeated to myself, "Why? Why do they take (the Japanese) that (the mox)? It's going to happen to them an accident for sure ... "And I fell asleep on this thought. At this time we carried out inspections of fuel assemblies which had to be delivered to TEPCO in June 2011.

Some announced the end of the world according to the Mayan calendar over a period from March 9 to October 28, 2011. So when the Friday, March 11, 2011 the earth shook with the consequences that we know, this brought credit to this hypothesis . But I understood that it was GOD and this video of angels above Fukushima confirms it.

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=Kp6ldpt6rKQ> The following day, March 12, 2011, it took me the desire to go on pilgrimage to Saint Just chapel overlooking my village, running (<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=ApYqwxZ2res>). Arrived at the top of the hill, in front of the setting sun I put myself in the position of the saving Christ of Rio de Janeiro and I thought "it's the end of the world, I'm going to save the world! ". It was time to go to sleep, I lay down as serene as usual, then I felt a force pull on my sheets, I was not scared and I thought I'm full of Love "then that force came into me, my whole body shuddered from head to foot, that's the spirit of GOD, who wanted to test me to know what I was going to make my life after feeling a spirit, I simply fell asleep without any fear, and I think anyone would, excuse me the term, "fart the lead". For my part it was Monday, March 14, 2011 when the No. 3 reactor exploded and when Tepco announced a merger of the hearts of reactors 1,2 and 3 of the Fukushima Dai-ichi power station that I became aware of the seriousness of the situation, forgetting that I had thought that Japan would experience a nuclear accident. Was it a coincidence? Or was my thought heard? On Monday, March 14, 2011, when the Fukushima Dai-ichi No. 3 reactor exploded, I was convinced that it was the end of the world, that's when I convinced myself that it was the beginning of the apocalypse because this reactor contained MOX. I was at work, and I felt bad, the ball in the stomach I asked my superior if I could go to the doctor, I left the job with a different idea in mind. I took my sports car to go to my dealer to exchange it for a big

4x4, then I went to the supermarket to build a stock of food, pasta, canned food ... enough to hold a few months. I was no longer myself, I was panicked convinced that disasters would follow each other on the whole earth. So I decided to go to church to repent, I was kneeling in front of the altar, my daughter at arm's length and I thought very strongly "accept this child in your kingdom of love and light. I went home to prepare suitcases and planned to take refuge in the mountains. But what was going to happen that night was the most amazing experience of my life. Once I calmed down, because I was ready to face the end of the world, I started to watch television. Sitting in my sofa, quiet and serene, it was then that I felt something, energy, a spirit, come from the sky and cover my head and go no control I began to smile and I found myself in a state of total bliss. I say to myself, "It's the Holy Spirit," I'd guessed right. I was watching TV and George W BUSH's face appeared on the screen, as soon as my smile faded to give a sad look to my face, the Holy Spirit had left me, and I did not think at all to ask again. I was not at the end of my surprises and what happened that night, changed my life. I went to bed as usual, when my forehead began to sting, to scratch myself harder and harder, I thought of a lady I had left in front of me at the cash desk in the afternoon. At noon in the supermarket, my heart burst forth with love, I received love and my heart beat wildly. My third eye (the soul) had just been opened to the spiritual world. You see Buddha is represented with a point between the two eyes on the forehead, it is about the soul. I had a gift, that of knowing who is loved by God, when I thought of a face I received either of love and my heart beat loudly, or my soul (3rd eye) hurt me when God did not like that person. The next day I thought of my wife and my soul hurt, so I asked her to ask God for forgiveness for all the harm she had done, she did it, I thought about her and my soul made me still wrong ... So I told her to close her eyes and ask for forgiveness for the harm she had done to me (she had deceived me). I thought of her for the third time and there my heart burst with love, I had just saved the soul of my soul mate. We were Tuesday, March 15, 2011, I had to go to the doctor to request a stoppage of work, it was 14h approximately. I went there, and in the waiting room there was no one, I looked out the window and I saw a black being watch me, like a shadow, I decided to think about it to know what God thought and I received chills of fear, I had just been madness on the mind, the demon, and I left in a great delirium ... which led me to psychiatry. I went to psychiatry for 14 days during which nothing interesting really happened. Why am I with GOD? Who am I to be with GOD? I am simply the MESSIAH. If you have any doubts, you can phone Dr. Charles Ngoma Ngonde at 331 69 92 53 21 And ask him what I am, and tell him that the lie is a sin, he will tell you that I am with GOD. Normally, according to the scriptures, the MESSIAH should have been a descendant of King DAVID, therefore a Jew ... But Hitler associated with the devil killed this descent, that's what Nazism was hiding. Hitler invoked the devil to get out of prison and take power in Germany and execute the devil's plan, kill as many Jews as possible, hoping to eliminate the descendants of King David.

As a result, God had no MESSIAH on hand to eliminate the devil and 4,500,000 demons. But on March 12th, 2011 I proposed to myself MESSY while going up to the chapel Saint Juste which overhangs my commune Saint Paul Trois Châteaux. As explained above, when I arrived at the top I put myself in the position of saving Christ and I thought "it's the end of the world, I'm going to save the world" by imagining to make this Christian world before the end. Without knowing it, I had just offered MESSIE to GOD. So GOD revealed himself to me on Monday, March 14, 2011 giving me the Holy Spirit that I did not think to seal ... He then opened my soul to the spiritual world (what Descartes called the 3rd eye ) and ordered me to judge the world, in reference to the judgment of the lamb of the apocalypse, in my judgment I should have said "GOD is the only judge", but I judged because I had received 'order. My judgment was anything, who am I to judge the world? In detail I thought, "Children of Africa, I bless you! "Muslims, you will go to heaven if you become Christians" "Japanese you will go to hell because you venerate the dragon (the devil)" In short my judgment had no place to be, because GOD is the only judge. Because of this, because I had cursed those I love, the Japanese, in the night GOD burned my soul and my spirit at the fire of hell, this is what I thought about it: "Ah Satan! (Believing it was the devil who was attacking me), oh, oh ... no big deal ... "And I went back to sleep as if nothing was wrong. I can assure you that the fire of hell is completely bearable and that GOD is not mean. The Bible (falsified) speaks to us of a lake of fire and of suffering it is not so ... Why have the soul (3rd eye) open on the spiritual world will you say to me? To kill the devil and the demons. Indeed my soul was a spiritual portal on hell. It pulsates like a heart that beats every demon sent to hell. As said before I did not have the Holy Spirit so I did not have the total protection of GOD. I did not have any instructions for my new spiritual powers. I will briefly explain what are the demons. Have you heard of extraterrestrial abductions? From gray aliens? Small gray?

Those are demons, who have purposely pretended to be extraterrestrials (see illustration), those are they who move in flying saucers on earth, I will explain to you later how they fly. On May 13, 2011 at 8:30 am, I woke up to think of demons in my daughter's room, found myself conscious and paralyzed, unable to even speak ... until I said, "GOD is going to smash, burn you! "I had understood that GOD had to be invoked in this kind of situation. Many websites say it, to avoid an abduction of demons it is necessary to invoke either GOD, either JESUS or the archangel Saint Mickael. Indeed demons can be in spiritual or physical form, like angels. I started killing demons from the moment I thought, "I am God's instrument on earth." The devil and his henchmen were looking for me on earth. The devil come on my mind and had access to all my thoughts. When it happened the first time, I imagined a different scenery from my reality, I imagined in a Japanese restaurant surrounded by Japanese and with menus written in Japanese. I can assure you that when the devil is on your mind you feel bad, very badly. On August 22, 2011 I asked GOD "if I am really with you, GOD, that Washington trembles" and the next day this region of the globe shook. <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=wraffyG3ta8> On several occasions the devil came to my mind, one night at bedtime, and I thought, "I'm going to put myself in futility, so the Saint Spirit will intervene, what am I going to buy tomorrow? UFO yakisoba ... (Japanese noodles) "and the Holy Spirit came on my mind, I was in total serenity and I no longer felt the spirit of the devil, I could spend a wonderful night. Today with hindsight, I feel stupid not to have invoked the Holy Spirit more often and especially not to have sealed it on my mind. But despite that I managed to kill the devil, I'll explain how later. The next time when the devil pictured on my mind I told him "Yam Yam 前前前殺殺魔魔魔魔魔魔魔魔魔魔»!

invoke the Holy Spirit, but GOD gave me an aura of protection (see illustration).

I felt demons and the devil trying to get into this aura, without success at all, then my chakra (energy centers of your mind) began to pulse as my soul pulsed, ie they were too became portals to hell, for three hours non-stop I killed demons, feeling my aura, my chakras and my soul. The next day the dragon made me angry much faster and I answered the same thing "Nobuhiko Sawaki" thinking the same Japanese face, I received love again. I had a real phobia, a demon materializes in my house. And that happened on October 29, 2011 at 5am. GOD reassured me and killed him. That's what a demon materialized looks like

Every night for months I kill demons with my soul, it pulsates like a heart that's down, when I kill a demon he had access to my thoughts, so it was important not that I think of my face, or even my place of residence, or even say my name. That's why I created myself a thought (see illustration) and I trained myself to block my thinking, until the point of thinking about the same thing during 8 hours non-stop, is a whole night.

The Menorah on earth, in other words GOD on the earth. Many believe that the Menorah is a Jewish candlestick. It is actually a receptacle of the seven colors of light, the seven colors of the rainbow, and we all know that GOD is light. Without knowing it, this thought protected me completely. I told you that I killed the devil. That's how I killed the devil, the dragon, Satan ... I just lay on my bed and I thought very hard about his death by imagining it in big flames, carbon black skin and eyes closed, I blocked my thoughts on his death and I felt it coming on my soul. When he reached my soul he forced me to write my name just before going to hell, and that's what I wrote in my mind: さ わ き (SAWAKI) The devil shared this thought with all demons still alive, and at that moment I received all the love of GOD, my heart was pounding with an enormous feeling of love for several seconds. I understood that I had just done a good performance for GOD. You are probably wondering why GOD needed a man to kill the devil and the demons. On the one hand only a soul can be a portal to hell and GOD had told the devil that a man would kill him and the demons, GOD seals his word, and it is a man, myself, who fulfilled the word of GOD. It only remained to eliminate the remaining demons. So as you read before, I went to bed at night and my soul was pulsating, for each demon put in hell a pulsation.

GOD opened to me the chakras and the demons could thus speak to me, with a spiritual voice, I know very well that it's hard to understand what a spiritual voice is, yet when you dream you hear a lot of spiritual voices. You know that you can talk to yourself in your mind, that's exactly what you're doing right now when you read these lines. Imagine that you do not say anything, and that a voice different from yours is heard. So the demons were talking to me and looking for me in Japan, I answered once in Japanese "Hi it's me Mickey Mouse! You want to come play in my house, let's go! To make fun of them completely. I knew that they were looking for me with their flying saucers over Japan, I understood that the flying saucers belonged to the demons thanks to the prophet Daniel who told us: "a metal disk in the sky is malice" .

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=PGhYduLgvZk>

So I understood how flying saucers were flying. They use the Earth's magnetic field, they amplify and oppose it (I understood from the video, look from 1min17, we see the image distortion of the magnetic stripe camera). So knowing this I asked GOD to put, pardon me the term, the brothel in the Earth's magnetic field so that they could not fly anymore. That done, a demon asked me "what do you do flying saucers", I did not answer but I regret not to have answered "take the Japan airline". GOD applied all my thoughts in the spiritual as in the physical, and unfortunately for me I thought "I'm going to lose my wife", so GOD did everything for me to lose my wife, he put a big demon on me the spirit, some PAZUZU ... The demon of GOD. For 9 months from October 2013 to July 2014, ie until my wife left me I had this demon on my mind. I no longer controlled my thoughts, so I insulted GOD, JESUS, that I had horrible thoughts, while fighting the demons, I lived the big spiritual turmoil for 9 months. I once insulted the name YESHUAH thinking that it was the name of JESUS in Hebrew, so I told GOD that I agreed to go to hell and get my soul smashed by the devil ... But GOD forgives me all and loves me with unconditional love for what I am and what I have done and Yeshuah is not JESUS. The demons were looking for me in Japan, and to confuse them completely I talked to them about all cultures. So I invoked GANESHA, which is the representation of GOD for Hindus, and I felt it coming to kill demons.

I then pretended to be a Hopi thinking of the red Kachina and the blue one

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=ZWkvK4HQx0Y>

I thought of the Burmese and Asian Buddha, the Egyptian GOD Rah, in light of all representations of GOD.

It was in July 2014 that I was rid of PAZUZU, because my wife had left me, and especially rid of demons. I had accomplished the mission that had been entrusted to me on March 14, 2011 and we were in July 2014, so 3 years of spiritual suffering. It was on this date that GOD began to speak to me. He praised and praised me, saying to me that I was very strong of mind and to confess that he is "on the buttocks" to have seen me succeed in killing the devil and 4,500,000 demons without the Holy Spirit. If I had invoked the Holy Spirit, forgive me again, I will have put the brothel on earth, and all men would have understood that it is the Apocalypse. Then during the month of August 2014 GOD undertook a revelation to me, and explained to me the secrets of this world. But above all, he explained to me that I am his son ... I myself am on the buttocks of knowing it. Why am I his son? I will explain it to you as he explained it to me. This is what GOD told me: "I chose you before birth so that you make me strong hoping that you give me a soul, in order to kill the devil and the demons, I knew that in this family you would be well brought up with two Christian grandmothers, your Christian parents, I chose you and I sealed that I will nourish only your thoughts. But at the age of two, in front of a Walt Disney cartoon, Dumbo, at the scene where Dumbo is drunk and sees pink elephants dancing you thought this "an elephant is a woman" by associating the pink color with the elephant. But I'm the elephant for the Hindu, GANESHA, I gave myself the spirit of a woman and I was not stronger at all with that weak woman spirit ... So I created you the spirit, I made you my child, and I put you in the worst of all the trouble for you to sin. I hoped that you were sinning to put yourself in heaven from your sin, so that you make me strong with your thoughts, and that you say to me "GOD gives himself the means to kill the devil and the demons ". But you did not sin in your life! And after Fukushima on March 12, 2011 you asked to save the world! We are all, me and the angels, on the buttocks! You built your mind very well, whereas I wanted you to become a homosexual and a Muslim to put yourself in heaven ... instead of that you were a nice kind Christian with everyone. I love you with unconditional love since your birth. You are my son! And the MESSIAH of the end of the world! I proved myself by choosing you before birth, that is to say having chosen the right sperm from an infinity of sperm, that I am never wrong because I am GOD. You do not imagine how strong I feel I have made the right choice among the infinite! You're lucky that the devil and the demons knew nothing about Japan, or even his language, you completely fooled them. You did not think to invoke the Holy Spirit, because you thought it was reserved for Jesus in heaven, because of the stupidities that we teach you, there is no trinity, the Holy Spirit is me, GOD, in all my power on earth. If you had asked for it you would have had all the powers on earth, the devil and the demons would have found you but they could not have done anything against you. I'll tell you what to think about killing them much more quickly. Instead, you did the MESSIAH with my demon, Pazuzu, on the spirit. You do not imagine how strong you are, my child. This world is strong to get stuck in front of me, you do not imagine the number of fishermen, atheists will be aghast to know that GOD exists and that it is the end of the world. The men will all cry to know that they will go into eternal suffering, few will be saved. It was your fault the Fukushima disaster, I thought you were going to kill yourself for losing your job, instead you thought you were going to save the world and you did it. You had bad thoughts because of Pazuzu, I forgive you completely. I do not judge thoughts but acts and I love you with unconditional love for what you are and what you did. You'll be in heaven next to me. I'll protect you on earth like a cat protects her kittens. Do not be afraid to tell the world that you are the MESSIAH. I wish you to make this world Christian. "GOD has three sons, KRISHNA, JESUS and I, Mathieu (MATHIYA in Hebrew, which means" gift of GOD ") JESUS was also taken for a mentally ill when he said that he was a child of GOD, he was taken for a magician, until he put himself on the cross, on which he did not suffer at all, GOD put him to heaven and not to hell for three days, and three hours later he raised him to the stunned crowd who knelt before him. I read in your thoughts and you surely say that I fabulate, ask in this case the doctor Charles NGOMA NGONDE at 01 69 92 53 21 and remind him that the lie is a sin. In addition I remind you the big lie even in hell, so I'm not lying, I'm not suicidal, I'm the MESSIAH and child of God.

GOD put me in the spirit world, I was spirit, I felt as alive as on earth, you are also spirit when you dream with the difference that you are conscious and you are not when you dream . You are spirit that animates a body and that spirit is eternal! The real death is when we go to hell. I will explain hell to you and you will understand how horrible it is. When GOD puts you in hell he kills your thought, that means you can not talk to yourself anymore, and you see "black" and you burn in the spiritual fire that is completely bearable, I remind you that I have experienced, because GOD is not mean. I come back to the flying saucers, they are made of a big magnet and a big battery. Inside there is a pulpit similar to that of our brain, and the demon spirit settles in and controls it. It is GOD who gave this means of locomotion to the demons so that they can travel in the physical world. Men equate flying saucers with extraterrestrials, because Hollywood has bombarded us with extraterrestrial films in flying saucers. I tell you, we are alone in the universe. I spoke of the GOD RÂH, which is a representation of the GOD unique in ancient Egypt, ADONAI, ELOHIM for Jews and Christians or GANESHA for Hindus. This brings us to the pyramids, everyone agrees that the pyramids are a mystery, they are indeed tombs, but who built them? GOD created the pyramids. GOD showed me that he could materialize and dematerialize what he wants in the snapshot. So I saw my mobile phone disappear and reappear behind me. Why did GOD create the pyramids? He did it because the pharaohs of ancient Egypt prayed to be eternal on earth, and GOD does not appreciate this prayer. So he made them palaces (the pyramids) and asked them to settle in the sarcophagi, and GOD set them on fire so that the bodies of the pharaohs are charred, so eternal in the physical ... DIEU informed me that this prayer should not be made to be eternal on earth. Let me explain, do you know what will happen at the end of the world? Padre PIO spoke about it, there will be three days of darkness, the sun will disappear for three days and GOD will give the omniscience to men, then GOD will put each of us where we must go, paradise or hell, then GOD will burn the earth, even the end of the world for the Hindu in which SHIVA will burn the earth. But the men who have made this prayer to be eternal on earth will either have to commit suicide or wait for the fire on earth and die in the worst pain ...

Defeat Psychiatry : August 10, 2015 GOD has made me go to psychiatry in order to defeat her. For that he asked me to present in front of my mother a knife in front of the heart, to simulate a suicide attempt.

In psychiatry they wanted to give me a bite, saying "you're going to scream in pain," and it did not do anything to me I almost laughed. I was put in a coma for several days and when I woke I was asked what date it was, I gave the correct answer (August 23, 2015). I lost 13kg in 1 month while in psychiatry it is supposed to gain weight. I only vomited the pills I was given, not my meal. I was given pills that normally should have put me in a coma, and I remained awake. Psychiatrists and nurses were all atheists before I came and became Christians after my stay in psychiatry. Let's talk philosophy and science now. Einstein demonstrated the relativity, putting establishing the relation between energy and mass. There was more simple to do to demonstrate total relativity. Ask yourself this question, what is the center of the universe? The center of the universe is you, we are each our own center of the universe, because it is from our consciousness that we observe it. What goes against this relativity? Television because it presents us with the same reality. The light. Scientists show us the sun like a fireball, it is not so ... It's about light is it's divine, GOD is light, the sun is GOD just like the stars. No scientists, the sun is not hydrogen or any other gas that burns, on the one hand if it were gas all at once, and on the other hand you observe that the gas that burn, so the fire does not light up like your bulb. So NASA bails us with his photos and images of synthesis of the sun. The light is instant and has no speed. Scientists are still telling us that the speed of light is around 300,000km / second. Or that the sunlight takes 8 minutes (as by chance a round number) to reach the earth, in this case the sun would be up for eight minutes and we will not see it again and he would be lying for eight minutes and we will see again. So a light year does not mean anything. Because if we take the case of proxima centaur, the nearest star (4AL) we perceive its position with 4 years late, yet it crosses the sky in a night time.

Conclusion.

This world is a scam, we are devised by the devil, and I think we have reached the limits of development in our industrialized countries, the scientific, social, technological and political limits. If it were not the end of the world, our salvation would come from Africa, investing in this continent to develop its countries, its population. By manufacturing equipment goods, vehicles, bringing them what is essential, energy. There are huge disparities in wealth, you know very well, everyone wants to be rich without worrying about the misery of the neighbor.
