To do so, clues are posted on the "Vestiaire Collective" application and website.

3 - TERMS & CONDITIONS FOR PARTICIPATION IN THE COMPETITION

3.1 Acceptance of the Rules

To participate in the Competition, the participants must fully and unreservedly accept these rules. Should they refuse all or part of these rules, the participants should not take part in the Competition.

VESTIAIRE COLLECTIVE will cancel the participation of any participant failing to fully comply with these rules.

Any incorrect information, any fraud or any use of any methods to obtain an unfair advantage in addition to any use of the "Vestiaire Collective" application or website in a manner which is prejudicial to VESTIAIRE COLLECTIVE and/or third parties will result in the participant's immediate disqualification.

VESTIAIRE COLLECTIVE will be the sole and ultimate arbiter in any dispute concerning the Competition and the rules.

These rules may be modified at any time by VESTIAIRE COLLECTIVE. Any possible modifications will take the form of an amendment, which will be published under the same conditions as these rules.

3.2 Participation in the Competition

The Competition is accessible by any participant imperatively meeting all of the conditions detailed below.

Participation in the Competition is open to any natural person of legal age or any minor at least 13 years old possessing special parental authorisation for this purpose.

The Organising Company may request that any minor participant provides proof of their special parental authorisation in order to be able to participate in the Competition. Where applicable, VESTIAIRE COLLECTIVE reserves the right to disqualify any minor participant unable to provide proof of this authorisation. The participants' home address may also be checked by the Organising Company.

Each participant should possess suitable IT equipment (computer and/or digital tablet and/or smartphone) and an Internet connection enabling him to connect to the "Vestiaire Collective" application or website.

Employees of VESTIAIRE COLLECTIVE (including those having left the company less than 3 months ago) are prohibited from participating in the Competition, as are members of their family (spouses, relatives or persons living under the same roof).

Participation in the Competition is limited to 1 (one) participation per participant (same name, same address).

Participation in the Competition is on a named and strictly personal basis. Each participant agrees that they will not participate under any name other than their own, or on behalf of any third party.

VESTIAIRE COLLECTIVE will disqualify any entry which is non-compliant, i.e. which is incomplete, erroneous, whose information is incompatible with participation in the Competition, submitted late or submitted in any form other than that provided for in these rules. Any participation by any means other than the "Vestiaire Collective" application or website will be considered invalid.

4 - COMPETITION ORGANISATION

The Competition takes place on the "Vestiaire Collective" application and website.

The aim of the Competition is to participate in a treasure hunt to try and win one purchase voucher each day throughout the Competition, which can be used to acquire the corresponding product on sale on the "Vestiaire Collective" application.

Each day of the Competition and once a day the Organising Company will provide a clue to help the Participants try and identify the category of brand on sale. This clue will take the form of a sentence in the top banner to help the user guess the brand of the product.

The clue will be issued at 12 pm o'clock (Eastern Standard time, EST) on April 15th and April 16th 2021.

Once the clue has been found, or even in the absence of any clue, any participant may carry out a search from among the items on sale in the dedicated campaign on the "Vestiaire Collective" application and website using the keyword corresponding to the brand of the product in the Competition. Among the list of results, any participant may try and identify the item concerned by trying to find the voucher code in the comments of the item.

Once the item has been identified and the code obtained, any participant may try and place an order for the product, taking care that they use the purchase code when paying and settling the balance of the asking price after the value of the purchase voucher has been deducted. The participant who is fastest at identifying the product and placing an order using the voucher will win the prize. The product will then be sent to them at the postal address entered at the time the order is placed, on condition that it is possible to ship to the country concerned.

VESTIAIRE COLLECTIVE agrees to ensure that all participants in the Competition have an equal chance of winning. It is hereby specified that it is not imperative to find the clues in order to be able to identify the products and the corresponding purchase vouchers. The prizes are won on a "first-come, first-served" basis. Any prize (not) won at the end of the day will not be re-entered in the competition.

VESTIAIRE COLLECTIVE expressly reserves the possibility to shorten, prolong, extend, interrupt or cancel the Competition on any grounds, without this creating any entitlement to any financial consideration or compensation for the participants.

Any products associated with a purchase voucher which have not been identified during the availability period will be withdrawn from the Competition and may no longer be purchased using the purchase voucher issued for the Competition. On the other hand, they may still be acquired normally, in return for payment of the full price to the vendor and the corresponding costs.

The Organising Company will inform the public each day when the day's prize has been won.

5 - LIABILITY

The participants take part in the Competition entirely under their own liability.

VESTIAIRE COLLECTIVE may not be considered liable for the operation or unsatisfactory operation of the Competition and/or of the "Vestiaire Collective" application or website more generally, particularly with regard to incidents of any nature resulting from any causes, such as those affecting access to the said application or, more generally, any incident outside VESTIAIRE COLLECTIVE'S control making it impossible to participate in the Competition, including force majeure circumstances pursuant to article 1218 of the French Civil Code and French case law.

Furthermore, VESTIAIRE COLLECTIVE may not be considered liable for any contamination by computer viruses resulting from surfing the Internet. It is the responsibility of each participant to take the necessary measures to protect their IT equipment against any attempted intrusion or contamination.

6 - INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY RIGHTS

The product photographs shown on the "Vestiaire Collective" application and website represent products protected by intellectual property rights held by third parties other than VESTIAIRE COLLECTIVE. The circulation or re-circulation of these photographs may be prohibited by the rightsholders. No use of these photographs will confer any intellectual property rights in any form on the participants with regards to the products thus represented.

All intellectual property rights concerning the Competition belong to VESTIAIRE COLLECTIVE. Under the terms of the provisions of Volumes I and III of the French Intellectual Property Code, any reproduction or representation of the various elements comprising the Competition, whether partially or wholly, without VESTIAIRE COLLECTIVE'S prior and express consent is prohibited and will result in legal proceedings being brought before the courts with jurisdiction for the matter.

The quoted brands are the property of their respective owners.

7 - COMPETITION PRIZES

7.1 Description of the prizes

Each day, 1 (one) prize can be won in the form of a purchase voucher, making a total of 2 (two) prizes throughout the competition period.

As the aim of the Competition is to try and identify the products the participants are competing for, these rules cannot list them in advance. However, the participants are informed that the value of the prizes for information purposes is as follows:

- 423.29 (two hundred twenty-three) dollars (and twenty-nine cents) for the first day;
- 117.70 (one hundred seventeen) dollars (and seventy cents) for the second day

Each participant can only win 1 (one) voucher during the Competition.

The awarding of a prize to a winner is firm and final. VESTIAIRE COLLECTIVE will not exchange a prize, including for its cash value.

The participants hereby declare that they are aware that the purchase vouchers they are competing for make it possible to acquire second-hand products on sale on the "Vestiaire Collective" application and the website. The sale of the prizes is subject to the Organising Company's general terms of sale.

7.2 Allocation of prizes

Each prize is allocated to the participant who is the first to successfully identify the product corresponding to the purchase voucher and to place an order for the said product using the said purchase voucher, paying the balance of the price after the deduction of the value of the purchase voucher. VESTIAIRE COLLECTIVE will accept no complaints or claims concerning the selected winner.

To confirm the allocation of their prize, each winner must have an account on "Vestiaire Collective" website and consequently supply or confirm certain information at the time they place the order, including their last name, first name, date of birth, complete postal address, e-mail address and telephone number (landline or mobile). The winner grants VESTIAIRE COLLECTIVE the right to use the abovementioned information for commercial purposes.

VESTIAIRE COLLECTIVE reserves the right to carry out any checks on the winner's identity and place of residence after the prize draw in compliance with the currently valid version of the "Informatique et Libertés" law of 6 January 1978 (the French data protection act). VESTIAIRE COLLECTIVE may also request copies of any documentary proof (telephone bill, gas or electric bills, etc.)

The participants agree that any false information concerning their identity and/or their place of residence will automatically lead to the invalidation of both their participation in the Competition and the awarding of any prizes they may win.

Additionally, the Organising Company reserves the right to cancel the prize allocation and the right to draw another winner from the prize draw if the initial winner is a minor and is unable to provide proof of the parental authorisation required to participate in the Competition.

7.3 Issuing prizes

Each winner will be informed that they have won a prize by means of them being able to place an order for the product concerned and to pay the balance of the price after the deduction of the value of the purchase voucher. The Organising Company will not send out any specific message for information purposes.

VESTIAIRE COLLECTIVE will make every effort to ensure that the prize is issued to the winner within a reasonable period of time. Each prize is sent via the shipment methods provided for in the Organising Company's general terms and conditions for "Purchasers".

VESTIAIRE COLLECTIVE may not be considered liable in the event of reception problems, delays, losses or any other loss-generating consequences resulting from the acts of third parties such as carriers or hauliers.

Additionally, it is expressly stipulated that VESTIAIRE COLLECTIVE may under no circumstances be considered liable in the event that a prize cannot be issued to the winner due to a postal and/or e-mail address which was incorrectly completed by the participant. It is the responsibility of the participants to check that the e-mail addresses they supply when placing the order are correct, as VESTIAIRE COLLECTIVE is unable to check this beforehand.

In the event of force majeure, or if a prize is unavailable for reasons outside its control, VESTIAIRE COLLECTIVE may validly replace the prize mentioned in the rules by one or several prizes with an overall equivalent value.

By accepting their prize, the winner authorises VESTIAIRE COLLECTIVE to use certain personal data (last name, first name, town or city of residence, image) for promotional purposes without such use giving rise to any financial consideration other than the prize allocated to the winner. The winner consequently authorises VESTIAIRE COLLECTIVE to use their name and image on the Internet (including on social networking sites) or on any other medium (paper, television, radio, Internet) for a period of up to 1 (one) year from the date these are first used.

Via these rules, and pursuant to the provisions of article 13 of the GDPR, the Participants are hereby informed that the personal data concerning them may possibly be forwarded to VESTIAIRE COLLECTIVE'S business partners, unless they oppose the provision of such information, which they may do at no cost.

Additionally, each participant will assume any possible costs for connecting to the Internet incurred by them in order to participate in the Competition, in addition to the cost of acquiring a digital terminal making it possible to connect to the "Vestiaire Collective" application.

VESTIAIRE COLLECTIVE will issue no refunds of postal charges concerning any request for the rules.
