

CHAPTER 4: REVIEW TEST

EXERCISE 1. Identify the patterns in the following sentences.

1. John packed his suitcase for the trip to Atlantic City.
2. Lynn always complies readily with her friends' requests for help.
3. The street vendor was selling hot dogs and hot chestnuts to an eager crowd.
4. Martha gave one of the most impressive election speeches of the entire campaign.
5. The mirror in the fun house dramatically distorted Fran's shape.
6. A silver medal he just might win.
7. Have the principle and the dean given their approval for this absence?
8. Yuri stopped the argument between the two students.
9. Mr. Norton gave the parking attendant a dollar.
10. Don't tell him any confidential information.
11. He is an excellent driver.
12. The butcher had saved Mrs. Parkinson three pounds of stew meat.
13. The two investigators interrogated Steve about the accident at the intersection.
14. The first national bank had been designed the executor of Mrs. Carol's estate.
15. Please copy your chemistry notes for the review session.
16. Larry recited the Gettysburg Address to the entire student body.
17. Uncle Ferdinand handed me a slice of Lady Baltimore cake.
18. The naval officer is the husband of Mr. Johnson's sister-in-law.
19. The director of the zoo studied zoology for many years.
20. The baby cried all night.
21. In early December many popular gift items become quite scarce.
22. That city is one of the country's largest manufacturers of junior apparel.
23. Throughout the entire parade my youngest sister marched in a downpour of rain.

24. Juan contributed twenty hours of his time to the recycling center.
25. The telephone next door has been ringing for at least an hour.
26. Marco hit his forehead in exasperation.
27. The malfunctioning lawn mower gave Mrs. Frederick fits.
28. The records in the cabinet and the books on the shelves were evidence of his interest in music and literature.
29. Venison often tastes odd to people.
30. The teachers' association awarded the valedictorian a full-year scholarship to the state university.
31. We seniors considered Homecoming Week a success.
32. The high winds and waves made the ocean crossing a disaster.
33. The Smiths named their younger boy Mark.
34. Charles Dickens found writing quite lucrative.
35. Alias has just painted her kitchen red, pink, and orange.
36. As a joke, all the members of the team dyed one lock of their hair green.
37. Because of his many childhood illnesses, some people thought Theodore Roosevelt a sissy.
38. The lifeguard hurled the life preserver into the deep end of the pool.
39. Have you seen my pearl necklace anywhere in the room?
40. A period of political unrest followed.
41. There was a large crowd outside the museum yesterday.
42. All the guests were upstairs.
43. The old house roof collapsed.
44. The mysterious man has been there for hours.
45. Here are my books!
46. She got out.
47. Cheryl Ann is the only girl in the family.
48. Harriet saved some cakes for me.
49. Doug's shirt looks purple in that light.
50. The prisoner remained calm and alert throughout the trial.
51. Does your cousin lose his glasses often?
52. After years of study, Carrie became a veterinarian.
53. After the departure of the baby-sitter, the four children felt content.
54. My stepfather grows a wide variety of fruits and vegetables in the garden in our backyard.