

Tenses

Lesson 2: THE PAST TENSE

1. The Past Simple

1. Form: v + ed (except irregular verbs)

forms \ P.P.S	I, he, she, you, we, they
Positive form	Last Sunday, they worked for two hours. She was very well last week.
Negative form	They didn't work / did not work . She wasn't / was not well.
Interrogative form	Did they work? Was she well? Were you happy?

2. Use

- We use the past tense for completed events / actions in the past.

E.g.: Emma passed her exam last year.

E.g.: Gerald was in Australia twenty years ago.

NOTE: "Would" and "used to" can also be used to express a habit in the past which no longer takes place.

E.g.: We used to go sailing on the lake in summer.

E.g.: She would sit cross-legged in her red robes.

2. The Past Continuous

1. Form: The past simple of to be (was/ were) + v-ing

Forms \ P.P.S	I , he, she , you , we , they
Positive form	I was walking . We were walking .
Negative form	I was not / wasn't walking . We were not / weren't walking .
Interrogative	Was I walking ? Were you playing ?

2. Use

- The past continuous tense is used to refer to a long continuous action that started and finished in the past.
- The past continuous tense is most commonly used when two past actions (one short action interrupting a long action) happened at the same time. In this situation, the simple past tense is used for the shorter action and the past continuous tense is used for the longer action. Time conjunctions while and when are usually used in order to make the tense differences clear ("while" / "as" are used to identify the longer action and "when" is often used to identify the shorter one).

E.g.: I was taking a shower when you called me.

E.g.: While I was taking a shower, you called me.

Past continuous or past simple?

- ✓ We use the past continuous when we are in the middle of an action in the past. However, the past simple is used for a completed action in the past.
E.g.: I was driving home. (I was in the middle of my journey.)
E.g.: I drove home. (I finished my journey.)
- ✓ We often use the past continuous and simple together when a shorter action interrupts a long action.
E.g.: As we were driving down the hill, a strange object appeared in the sky.
E.g.: While Laura was sitting in the garden, it suddenly began to rain.
- ✓ We use two past simple verbs for two short actions coming one after another.
E.g.: When we saw the spaceship, we stopped the car. (= We saw it and then we stopped.)
