Mr Jones sometimes does the cleaning like (comme) normal people.

He sometimes uses his superpowers because he is very strong.

He sometimes uses Ollie's powers because Ollie can lift (soulever) objects. He always does the cooking.

> Does Mr Jones always use his powers to Hoover? No, he doesn't.

Oliver always does the shopping because he can teleport.

He never goes to the supermarket. He prefers going shopping around the world.

> Does Ollie always go shopping around the world? Yes, he does.

Mrs Jones always does the gardening. She always puts the shopping away (because she is very fast).

Amelia takes Morph out (because he needs exercise).

Attention !

Do/does peut être un verbe = le verbe faire (comme dans l'expression do the cleaning) ou un auxiliaire (pour construire les questions et les phrases négatives)
