

The Grim Reaper

One morning when the birds were singing, Paul shouted cheerfully through the house. His father Roland asked him: "Are you sure that you are staying overnight? With a smile he answered: "Of course I want to". His father said: "I will bet you for a kebab, you will be scared". His father agreed. Paul and his father drove off at dawn. When they arrived, all his friends were already there. They said goodbye to their parents and set up the camp in the lonely forest. It was already dark, when Paul and Max were collecting wood for the camp. But suddenly when they arrived at an abandoned house, Max disappeared. Paul ran off immediately, when he heard an evil laugh. Arrived at the camp Lucia asked where he was so frightened? Paul answered excitedly: "Max suddenly disappeared, I ran off when I heard a bad laugh". Lisa trembled with fear and said: "It is maybe the Grim Reaper". I heard that he lives in a quiet and lonely forest". They froze, when they heard a strange voice said: "finally I found you".

Immediately they turned around and saw the Grim Reaper. He wore a black robe with a pointed hood and a white mask, but you can see clearly his devil red eyes. They ran for their lives through the forest, while the Grim Reaper followed them. The kids found an abandoned mine and escape into it but then the entrance collapsed.” And what now “? Lucia asked. Paul answered:” We have to look for another exit to get out “. What about Max: “She said desperately? Paul replied: „We can only hope he is fine. A moment later she turned on her torch. She got even more scared, because the first thing she saw was a skeleton. Paul and Lucia started finding an exit. A few minutes later they saw a strange smoke and ran to it. Then they were in an old office. They discovered many pictures. Until Lisa found a treasure map. Paul called:” Maybe we can find an exit with this map”. They followed the way on the map and met a bear, while Lucia was screaming Paul took her hand and they ran fast. After 10 minutes they could hang the bear. When they arrived at the end of the road, they found a rare shark coin in a box that had disappeared from the museum for 80 years. They were very exhausted and fell asleep. The next morning Paul saw the light of day. The kids found the lights and an exit. Roland, Max and the unmasked Grim Reaper stood in front of the exit. The Grim Reaper started to explain the situation: “I’m sorry that I frightened you but I always try to frighten people, because I want to work in a quiet and lonely forest. The children accepted the apology and brought the coin back to the museum.

Paul will never forget this scary and mysterious adventure.
