Perfect wives in ideal homes

WB p 115 to 117

Although (bien que) some laws (lois) gave men and women the same rights, there was no real equality in the 1950s.

Women didn't use to go to university.

Most women used to get married and stay at home to cook and take care of the children.

They didn't use to make important decisions.

On utilise used to + BV pour parler d'un fait passé qui n'est plus vrai au moment présent.

Forme affirmative : used to + BV

Forme négative : didn't use to + BV.

Forme interrogative : (mot interrogatif) + did + S + use to + BV + ?
