

The murder house

by Dana

Hello, I'm Lora and in my story I want to tell you what happened last week.

It was the 3th of september and I moved with my parents into an new house in Rosewood. Because of the many deaths that happened there, it wasn't that expensive, but because of that, my mother was very scared. I hated my new school and my parents were very strict so I was happy when I met Ted, who is now my boyfriend. Every day my mother told us that she heard strange noises, so I went with Ted to the basement. But surprise there was nothing. I THOUGHT. When I turned around, a skelleton was standing in front of me. But no one was there except Ted.

„ Not funny Ted! ”

I said and went upstairs.

I surched in the internet trying to find out more about the murders in the house. And when I saw that Ted's younger siblings died in the house and that Ted could have killed them, I was shocked. Then I saw a link to something on our school website so I clicked on it and there was an article about a rampage and I screamed, it said Ted was the person who killed the students and who ran amok. But that wasn't all he died after! So I went to him to confront him about him being dead. He said that i shouldn't freak out and follow him. He went to the basement with me and pointed on a book wich was laying on the floor. He pushed it and a door to a secretroom opend. And i saw over 30 skelletons laying on the floor. I looked at Ted questioningly: „who are they?“, he told me that these are the people he killed and he lived here once and he had to hide them and himself. Because of that nobody knewed what happend to them and everyone thought he died.

Since then he lifes in the basement.
