PARLE-MOI D'AMOUR MONTRÉAL 2021 :

23rd EDITION AT UQAM'S CŒUR DES SCIENCES AGORA

"An important moment for everyone, for those who participate to the workshops as much as for the organization."

- James Hyndman, spokesperson for Parle-moi d'amour

"Les Impatients welcomed me in their quiet, warm and compassionate environments. What a beautiful gift from Life!"

- Krystie-Ann Caron, Les Impatients spokesperson, Parle-moi d'amour 2020

"More than ever, mental health needs to be a top priority in terms of public health. Les Impatients and the Parle-moi d'amour exhibition show the true power of art on the communities' well-being."

- Manon Gauthier, Honorary Chair of Parle-moi d'amour

THE 22nd EDITION OF PARLE-MOI D'AMOUR IN NUMBERS

- 5 300 virtual visitors
- 79,000 people on social media
- 300 000 $ gathered for supporting, maintaining and developing Les Impatients' activities across Quebec
- over 150 artworks by professional artists, among which: Mathieu Beauséjour, Dominique Blain, Raphaëlle de Groot, René Derouin, Caroline Monnet, Dominique Pétrin, Marc Séguin et Heidi Spector.
- Support from the management of 5 major Quebec museums:

Presented since 1999, the exhibition-auction Parle-moi d'amour has become a major flagship event of the Montreal arts community and the main fundraiser of the organization Les Impatients. It is a silent auction where are presented and sold 300 artworks from workshop participants, professional artists and arts collectors. A committee made of professionals from the art community selects about 30 works to be part of the closing event's live auction. The auction's profits allow the organization to support and develop their creative workshops.

| 29 YEARS AND STILL IMPATIENTS
