

THE WEEKEND DES GRANDS CRUS, AN EXCEPTIONAL EVENT NOT TO BE MISSED THIS SEPTEMBER! 15th edition

On 17-19 September 2021, the Union des Grands Crus de Bordeaux will host the Weekend des Grands Crus – one of the most important events in the region. Come and join us for a weekend-long immersion into the unique world of the finest Bordeaux appellations. Privileged exchanges with winegrowers, a brand-new tasting format and exclusive activities are on the agenda.

THE WEEKEND DES GRANDS CRUS: A TAILOR-MADE PROGRAMME

TASTING

This year, over one hundred estate owners and châteaux representatives will invite you to Hangar 14 to discover the 2018 vintage, as well as another vintage of their choice. The UGCB will transform a key Bordeaux hotspot on the banks of the Garonne into “Halles du Sud-Ouest”, a food market showcasing the finest products from Southwest France. Local artisans and producers will be on hand to offer visitors authentic food and wine pairings featuring regional specialities. These tastings are the ideal occasion to meet estate owners and have an overview of their exceptional wines in a friendly, laid-back atmosphere. The day will be marked by a series of themed events and tastings.

Saturday 18 September

Tasting at H14

Pre-sale: €65/person – standard price: €80/person

Wine professionals and students: €30/person – standard price: €40/person

EXCLUSIVE DINNERS AT CHÂTEAUX

UGCB members will host Exclusive Dinners in outstanding settings. The perfect way to re(discover) the Bordeaux way of life and the finest food and wine pairings. “Diners passion” will take place in the heart of several member estates. For more information about participating estates, please visit ugcb.net.
