A visible widget is a successful integration!

An example of a successful integration in the top navbar

Lots of attendees and exhibitors are used to look for everything they need on your website.

As some organizers don't provide an accommodation service, they will consider that you are not providing it if they can not find it almost immediately. They will then make their booking throughout a standard platform.

Thus, the accommodation tab should be:

- Very visible : in the navigation bar via a dedicated tab, or in the 'Useful information' section otherwise
- Dedicated : accommodation is not mixed with other information

Also, don't hesitate to integrate the widget on all of your websites

Widget integration in 2 steps

It's really easy to integrate the widget:

- 1) by copy-pasting the widget script in between the <body> tags of the HTML website code
- 2) add/adapt the content below that we've written for you

EN

<your organization> has appointed Revolugo as the only official housing agency for <your_event> to secure a large range of great accommodation solutions with exclusive discounts for the event.

Book early through the platform below for the best deals!

Confirmation participation mailings

After finalizing their participation, attendees will try to secure their accommodation as soon as possible. That's why we think that registration confirmation mailings is one of the bests (if not the best) way to invite them to book their accommodation.
