The Acontecimento Gurkha unit originated as a regiment of Regulars of Nepalese and Indian origins, who had come to settle on Acontecimento, and named themselves for the old Gurkha regiments of Earth, famed for their courage and efficacy. They gave admirable performances during the Ariandian Commercial Conflicts and Neo-Colonial Wars, but it was their exploits during the Shock Army's operations against the Combined Army on Paradiso that tempered them into the legends they are today. A defensive action gone wrong left the Gurkhas isolated and alone behind enemy lines, with nothing but the stiflingly dense jungle between them and the forces of the EI.

When they emerged from that jungle a month later - with the heads of several alien commanders slung from their hips - they had become something entirely different. Quickly realizing that they now had one of the most dangerous special forces in the Human Sphere at their disposal, Acontecimento command restructured the unit as a dedicated special operations group.

Courageous to a fault and utterly deadly, the Gurkhas are respected amongst their peers in the Shock Army as not just being masters of the jungle, but as the jungle itself manifest.
